

---

NICOLE LOOPER, Northwestern University
Arboreal Galois representations with large image

I will discuss several recent results concerning the size of the arboreal Galois representations induced by polynomials. This will include a partial solution to Odoni's Conjecture, as well as new results in the setting of unicritical maps. I will also address how these theorems relate to the arithmetic of critical orbits.