
SIMON GRIFFITHS, PUC-Rio

Multi-coloured urns on graphs, and co-existence

We consider an urn model with graph based interactions and ask the question: when can two competing growths (in different colors) co-exist? We discuss this problem in finite graphs and infinite lattices. We also discuss an application to co-existence of competing bootstrap type growth models.

[Based on joint work with Daniel Ahlberg, Svante Janson and Robert Morris]