
LU WANG, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Asymptotic structure of self-shrinkers of mean curvature flow

Self-shrinkers are a special class of solutions to mean curvature flow and they are singularity models for the flow. In this talk, I will show that each end of a noncompact self-shrinker in \mathbb{R}^3 of finite topology must be smoothly asymptotic at infinity to a regular cone or a round cylinder.