
VALERIANO ANTUNES DE OLIVEIRA, UNESP - Univ. Estadual Paulista, C.S.J. Rio Preto, S. Paulo, Brasil

The constant rank constraint qualification in the continuous-time context

A constant rank type constraint qualification is defined for continuous-time nonlinear programming problems with equality constraints. Necessary optimality conditions of Karush-Kuhn-Tucker type are obtained under this constraint qualification. It is worthy mentioning that a constant rank condition is less restrictive than the full rank one, which is commonly assumed in Karush-Kuhn-Tucker type theorems.

Joint work with Moisés Rodrigues Cirilo do Monte.

Work partially supported by grants 2013/07375-0 and 2016/03540-4, São Paulo Research Foundation (FAPESP), and 457785/2014-4 and 310955/2015-7, National Council for Scientific and Technological Development (CNPq).