
ALAN REID, University of Texas at Austin

Embedding arithmetic hyperbolic manifolds

In this talk we will discuss the proof that any arithmetic hyperbolic n -manifold of simplest type can either be geodesically embedded into an arithmetic hyperbolic $(n+1)$ -manifold or its universal mod 2 abelian cover can. This leads to new results about hyperbolic n -manifolds bounding hyperbolic $(n+1)$ -manifolds.