
LIZ VIVAS, Ohio State University

Parabolic skew-products and parametrization

It is a classical result that parametrization of unstable manifolds on hyperbolic holomorphic maps can be obtained by a limit of iterates of the map composed with an appropriate inverse action. In this talk I will generalize this result for skew-product invariant holomorphic maps that are parabolic. I will first give an overview of the results known in one and several complex dimensions.