
SAMUEL PETITE, Université de Picardie Jules Verne

Restrictions on the group of automorphisms preserving a subshift

A subshift is a closed shift invariant set of sequences over a finite alphabet. An automorphism is a homeomorphism of the space commuting with the shift map. The set of automorphism is a countable group generally hard to describe. We will present in this talk a survey of various restrictions on these groups for zero entropy subshifts.